Post-Tour Day: Full day in Peruvian Amazon

Breakfast is from 5:00-10:00 a.m. Today, you may choose to enjoy an excursion to Lake Sandoval. After a 30-minute boat ride to the Tambopata National Reserve, wildlife surrounds you during a one-hour walk to reach the lake. Then, glide in a wooden canoe across a beautiful oxbow lake. This area is home to the endangered giant river otter as well as red howler monkeys, macaws, prehistoric hoatzins, anacondas, point-tailed palm creepers, and side-neck turtles. Spend two hours on the lake delighting in all that it has to offer.

After lunch, perhaps you will discover the Inkaterra Canopy Walkway. A five-minute boat ride takes you to the Inkaterra Canopy Interpretation Center. After ascending the first tower, at 95 feet above the forest floor, you will walk through the treetops for one hour, along suspension bridges that link eight observation platforms. Enjoy landscapes and vistas that would be practically unimaginable from below, while you take in views of giant strangler fig trees, orchids, toucans, woodpeckers, trogons, and—with luck—monkeys and sloths. After your descent from the canopy, a 30-minute walk through the jungle gives you a chance to see the Amazon from a different perspective. In this lush ecosystem, you may observe various species of amphibians, birds, mammals, insects, and flora. At the end of your walk, return to the lodge.

Dinner is in the main dining room tonight. Then fall asleep to the song of the Amazon.

Included Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Departure Day: Departure from the Peruvian Amazon

Spend the morning relaxing. You may purchase a snack or lunch at the Lodge, but you need to notify the staff by 10:00 a.m. to do so.

In the early afternoon, journey by boat and van to the Puerto Maldonado airport for your flight home via Lima. Upon arrival, check in to comfortable rooms for day use. Tonight, dinner is at your leisure before returning to the airport for overnight flights departing in the late evening. Your flights may arrive at your final destination in North America the following day.

If you have customized your Country Walkers booked itinerary and don't have a flight departing on this day—or if you have purchased your own flights—then Country Walkers has not arranged your transportation.

Included Meals: Breakfast
